

Tammy Wolfhope

Tammy is a life time resident of Bedford County PA. She was married in 1997 to her current husband Kenneth and they have three children Emily, Benjamin, and Adam. Tammy is a member of the Catholic Church in Bedford. Tammy graduated from the Bedford High School in 1991 and furthers her education with a two year associate degree in 1993. She continues to strive towards furthering her educational goal by receiving both her CDA and School age credential. Tammy hobbies included painting, quilting, and other crafty activities.